8th Annual Spring Festival scheduled in Tuba City

Weekend event held to raise scholarship funds

TUBA CITY, Ariz. – For eight years in a row, the community of Tuba City will gather to celebrate a new season at the 8th Annual Spring Festival, taking place from today until Sunday, at the To'Nanees'Dizi Chapter House and at the Tuba City Fairgrounds.

The event is certain to draw thousands of people promises to bring laughter, hungry stomachs, and plenty of activities for the whole family.

"This is a time to let our hair down and to relax," Councilman Joshua Lavar Butler (To'Nanees'Dizi) said. "Everyone from all age groups are going to celebrate life, and, remember, it's OK to have fun every once in a while."

Whether you are here to play in the Halo tournament to win an Xbox 360, or to win dessert at the cake walk, this festival lets the community get closer together.

On Thursday, the festival kicks off at 4 p.m. (DST) with a carnival, graduation bazaar and a cake walk. On Friday, the carnival continues at 10 a.m., with activities happening all day with more cake walks, and a gospel concert.

Then, on Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 2 a.m., a marathon of fun with a community Barbeque, bingo, baby contest, and the Miss Spring Festival Beauty Pageant.

Finally, contest day is scheduled on Sunday, from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., with a watermelon eating contest, hot dog eating contest and pie eating contest. Rounding up the event is a Native fashion show

The weekend event has been held annually by the To'Nanees'Dizi Chapter to help raise funds for college student. More information can be found at www.dinefair.com
